Sir,

With reference to your letter No 8332-3 dt 167-08-12 Dated 26th February'09, calling for a detailed report regarding the recovery of Rupees 30/- from Mr. B. Garudachar Advocate on account of Subscription towards the construction of the Chamaraja Memorial Hall at Shimoga, I have the honor to invite reference to this office letter No 191 dated 18th January'09 on the Subject and to state that Mr. T. Sheenappa. Hon: Secretary and Treasurer Chamaraja Memorial Hall Committee states in his letter dated 9th January'09 that Mr. Chikkanna did not furnish him with the list of persons from whom Subscriptions were received or any details about the money he collected. Mr Chikkanna to whom a reference was made has replied in his letter dated 13th December 08 (Copy herein enclosed) to the effect that he does not remember having received any money from Mr. Garudachar. The cash book maintained by the Hon: Treasurer does not throw any light on the Subject.

Under these circumstances it is not possible to say whether the Sum of Rs 30/- Subscribed by Mr. B. Garudachar is included in the Sum of Rs 387/- mentioned in the Cash book under date the 30th May 03 as having been received from Lt. T. Chokkanna on account of subscription.

Dear Mr. Chandy,

Your note dated 12-12-08 thanks

I am sure I cannot give you any information about the Subscriptions to the Memorial Hall at Shimoga at this distant date

The list in reference must be either in the Municipal Office or in the Nowali Sub Division office. I remember Mr Sheemaker's giving such list of Mofussil Subscriptions extracts from which were sent to the Talukks. Beyond this I do not remember any other detail.

I received no Subscriptions myself as I think permission was accorded for crediting the collections in the local Treasuries and the remittances must have found their way to the Committee of the Memorial Hall.

Nor do I remember how the receipt to Mr Garudachar was granted by me, as I do not remember having handed the money. It might have been an adjustment for which I was asked to grant an acquittance receipt. I wonder if Mr Garudachar can enlighten us on the point.

A reference to the Taluk Treasury and and District Treasury Books may throw some light on the subject.

I am sorry I can be of no better use to you in this connection. I was only asked to help in the collection in a semi official way and that is all that I did and remember having done.

Yours etc
